Alvaro TAPIA, member of the Bogota municipal committee of the PCC, and Victor Rafael ZAMUDIO, of the Union of Communist Youth of Colombia (UJCC), have left Colombia bound for the Fourth World Youth Festival, to be held in Bucharest in August. Both plan to meet with other members of the Colombian delegation in Genoa, Italy. Victor COLLAZOS, secretary-general of the UJCC, expects to leave shortly for Prague, where he will have interviews with leaders of the World Federation of Democratic Youth (WFDY) prior to going on to Bucharest. Luis Carlos PEREZ Velasco and his wife, who are in Europe, also expect to attend the youth congress as members of the Colombian delegation.
